GARDEN DESIGN JOURNAL

JUNE 2010/ISSUE 95/£6

THE ITALIAN DREAM

Fancy spending a week or two this summer surrounded by an inspiring garden in a stunning setting? Arabella Lennox-Boyd's gorgeous Italian home, the Palazzo Parisi, is available to hire until the end of October. Arabella has recently expanded and developed the planting at the Palazzo (situated in the Sabine Hills an hour away from Rome) with new iris-lined walks and wildflowers among the olives. The wonderful pool is in a lovely setting and the house itself boasts seven vast bedrooms sleeping up to 10 people (with two additional rooms for children), six bathrooms, English-style sitting rooms and an indoor sundial – not to mention fantastic food, courtesy of Rita, the resident cook.
